1. Class A membership is available to property owners in Woodland Pond and Gates Bluff who want to use the pool, play volleyball and tennis, and participate in classes and social activities sponsored by the club. The empty nester category enables all households with no more than two adult members to bring two guests per day at no additional charge. The single resident category gives reduced annual dues of $125 off if an individual joins who is the sole occupant of the house (guest fees apply).

2. Associate membership is available only to people who are not property owners in Woodland Pond or Gates Bluff, including WP and GB residents who are renters, and individuals living outside of either of the above subdivisions. Associate members have the same privileges that Class A members have except that they cannot vote.

3. Social membership is available to all permanent residents of a household who are Woodland Pond and Gates Bluff property owners who do not want to use the pool during regular pool hours, but want to use the tennis and volleyball courts, attend social functions, and participate in classes such as water aerobics when offered pre/post regular pool hours.
